1 INTRODUCTION

This information manual is in respect of Liberty Holdings Limited including all wholly or partially owned subsidiaries and associated juristic persons, hereinafter referred to as “Liberty”. Refer to Annexure 3 of this document for a complete list of subsidiaries.

This information manual (“Manual”) provides an outline of the types of records held by Liberty and explains how one may submit requests for access to these records in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000 (the “Act”).

The Act gives effect to everyone’s constitutional right of access to information held by private sector bodies (e.g. companies) or public bodies (i.e. Government institutions) that is required for the exercise and/or protection of the requester’s rights.

A guide to the Act is available from the South African Human Rights Commission (“SAHRC”) website: www.sahrc.org.za. It describes, in each of official language:

- What the objective of this Act are;
- The details of each private body (where possible);
- The process that needs to be followed in order to make a request;
- How to get copies of the Guide at no charge;
- How to get access to the manual of a private body; and
- All the remedies available in law to you.

Should you have any queries in this regard, please contact the SAHRC directly at:

- protect and defend Liberty's rights and property (including Liberty's intellectual property).
- protect public interest
- Brokers / advisers / intermediaries
- Group companies, including STANLIB Limited and/or Standard Bank Group
- Third party service providers in order to uphold contractual obligations or service customers.

5.3 Trans border information flows

Liberty may share with or receive personal information from parties as set out above, where these parties reside outside of the Republic of South Africa. All operations are required to abide by Liberty's policies, procedures and guidelines, regardless of legislative requirements for data protection in these countries. Such countries include:

- Lesotho
- Swaziland
- Namibia
- Botswana
- Tanzania
- Kenya
- Uganda
- South Sudan
- Ghana
- Nigeria
- Zambia

5.4 Employee personal information may be received from or provided to:

- Pension / provident funds and/or their trustees
- Medical aid funds
- Recruitment companies
- Credit bureaux

5.5 Our security practices

- We are committed and obliged to implement all reasonable controls to safeguard access to your personal information.
- Where third parties are required to process your personal information in relation to the purposes set out in this manual and for other legal requirements, we ensure that they are contractually bound to apply the appropriate security practices.
- All use of our website and transactions through it are protected by encryption (secret codes) in line with international standards.

6 TYPES OF RECORDS HELD BY LIBERTY

Liberty maintains records on the following categories and subject matters. However, please note that recording a category or subject matter in this Manual does not imply that a request for access to such records would be granted. All requests for access will be evaluated on a case by case basis in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

6.1 Company records

The following are records pertaining to Liberty's own affairs:

- Finance and accounting records
- Human Resources;
 - Strategy;
- Shareholders;
- Intermediaries;
- Operational records;
- Technology;

- Value Added Tax 89 of 1991
- Unemployment Insurance Act 63 of 2001
- Compensation for Occupational Injuries and Diseases Act 130 of 1993

7 STEPS TO CONSIDER BEFORE SUBMITTING A REQUEST

The following steps must be considered before submitting a request:

7.1 Step 1: Are you requesting your own information?

All Liberty clients are allowed access to their own information without having to use the request for access to information procedures as set out in the Promotion of Access to Information Act, including, but not limited to:

- Policy documents
- Account information
- Personal Records
- Voice recordings

All Liberty clients should contact the relevant call centre or department to request access to their own information. Please note that there may be administration costs associated with retrieval of certain types of information records.

7.2 Step 2: Are you entitled to use the Act to request access?

Please take note of section 7(1) of the Act which states:

“This Act does not apply to a record of a public body or a private body if:

- (a) that record is requested for the purpose of criminal or civil proceedings;
- (b) so requested after the commencement of such criminal or civil proceedings, as the case may be; and
- (c) the production of or access to that record for the purpose referred to in paragraph (a) is provided for in any other law.”

If section 7(1) applies, you may not bring a request in terms of this Act. You must use the rules and procedures for discovery of information of the relevant legal forum and proceedings you are involved in. Liberty reserves the right to claim all expenses and other damages incurred as a result of a requester submitting a request in contravention of section 7(1).

7.3 Step 3: Does the information requested exist in the form of a record?

Please note that the Act only applies to records that are in existence at the time of us receiving your request. The Act does not compel anyone to create a record which is not yet in existence at the time the request is made. For instance, the Act cannot be used to obtain reasons for a decision taken by Liberty if such reasons are not in the form of a record.

7.4 Step 4: Is the record in the possession or under the control of Liberty?

The Act provides that the record requested must be in our possession or under our control. Therefore, even if a record was created by Liberty or at some point in Liberty’s possession (but no longer in Liberty’s control at the time of your request), you must seek access to the record from the party under whose possession or control it is.

8 HOW TO SUBMIT REQUEST FOR ACCESS

Please consider the steps in paragraph 7 above before submitting your request. Once you are satisfied that none of the foregoing prohibitions apply to you, you may proceed to submit a request as follows:

8.1 Request form

Please complete the request form in Annexure 1 to this Manual (the “Request Form”). You can send the completed request form as is or under cover of a separate letterhead or fax cover.

In the Request Form, you need to provide sufficient information to enable us to adequately identify –

- The record or records requested;
- The identity of the requester,
- Which form of access is required, if the request is granted;
- The postal address, fax number or email address of the requester.

8.2 Description of the right

Take care to adequately describe the right which you are seeking to protect or enforce by means of the records requested. Please note that the courts have indicated that access to the records must be “necessary” for the exercise or protection of the right so stated.

It is important to note that Liberty may refuse you access to the records requested if the right is not clearly defined or where the right you claim to seek to exercise or protect does not qualify as a right as contemplated in the Act.

8.3 Representatives

If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of Liberty.

8.4 Illiteracy or disability

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.

8.5 Prescribed fees

- (a) The prescribed fees, where applicable, as provided for in paragraph 9.2 below must be paid and proof of payment (e.g. copy of deposit slip) must be submitted following your request.
- (b) The requester will be notified where the Group Privacy Officer requires a deposit (calculated from the access fee).
- (c) You must submit proof of payment before your request can be processed.
- (d) If you qualify for exemption of the payment of any fee, please state the reason for exemption.

9 PRESCRIBED FEES

9.1 The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- A request fee, which will be a standard fee; and
- An access fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

9.2 The requester, other than a *personal requester, must pay the prescribed R50.00 (fifty rand) request fee, following submission of the request and provide a deposit slip as proof of payment which must follow the Request Form.

* "personal requester" means a requester seeking access to a record containing *personal information about the requester.

 "personal information" means information about an identifiable individual, including, but not limited to—

(a) information relating to the race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, national, ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental health, well-being, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language and birth of the individual;

(b) information relating to the education or the medical, criminal or employment history of the individual or information relating to financial transactions in which the individual has been involved;

(c) any identifying number, symbol or other particular assigned to the individual;

(d) the address, fingerprints or blood type of the individual;

(e) the personal opinions, views or preferences of the individual, except where they are about another individual or about a proposal for a grant, an award or a prize to be made to another individual;

(f) correspondence sent by the individual that is implicitly or explicitly of a private or confidential nature or further correspondence that would reveal the contents of the original correspondence;

(g) the views or opinions of another individual about the individual;

(h) the views or opinions of another individual about a proposal for a grant, an award or a prize to be made to the individual, but excluding the name of the other individual where it appears with the views or opinions of the other individual; and

(i) the name of the individual where it appears with other personal information relating to the individual or where the disclosure of the name itself would reveal information about the individual, but excludes information about an individual who has been dead for more than 20 years.

- 9.3 If the search for and preparation of the record (for disclosure), including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, Liberty will request you to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.
- 9.4 Liberty may withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated in Annexure 2.
- 9.5 A requester whose request has been granted must pay the applicable access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.
- 9.6 You may ask for a refund of the deposit if your request for access is refused.

10 CONSIDERING YOUR REQUEST

- 10.1 Liberty will have deemed to have received your request when all of the requirements in respect of the Act have been met.
- 10.2 Subject to the provisions in the Act in respect of extension of time periods, Liberty will process the request within 30 days, unless you have stated special reasons which would satisfy Liberty that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.
- 10.3 You will be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied.
- 10.4 The main grounds for Liberty to refuse a request for information relate to the:
- 10.4.1 mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
- 10.4.2 mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
- trade secrets of that third party;
 - financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; and
 - information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Liberty, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- 10.4.3 mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- 10.4.4 mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- 10.4.5 mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- 10.4.6 the commercial activities of Liberty, which may include:

- trade secrets of Liberty;
- financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Liberty; and
- information which, if disclosed could put Liberty at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- a computer program which is owned by Liberty, and which is protected by copyright; and

10.4.7 the research information of Liberty or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of Liberty, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.

11 YOUR REMEDIES

Liberty does not have internal appeal procedures. As such, the decision made by the Liberty is final. If your request is denied, you are entitled to apply to a court with appropriate jurisdiction for relief.
